Glen Helen Raceway Continues to Showcase 2-Stroke Talent during Their Outdoor National

San Bernardino, CA – May 17, 2018: As Glen Helen Raceway prepares to host the 2nd Round of the Lucas Oil Pro Motocross Championship, Event Director Lori Wilson, in conjunction with MTA Distributing, work to further promote the sport of motocross with the “2-Stroke Invitational” taking place prior to the main events of the day on Saturday, May 26th, 2018 during the Lucas Oil Pro Motocross Championship series.

Riders for the Invitational are comprised of past participants of the MTA 2-Stroke World Championships hosted at Glen Helen Raceway last March and other professional 2-Stroke riders. Among some of the committed participants this year are Mike Sleeter, Darryn Durham, Robbie Wageman, RJ Wageman, Jimmy Albertson, Dennis Stapleton, Chris See, and many more!

Glen Helen Raceway is excited to see the continued growth of sport of motocross and showcasing the importance of 2-Stroke machines that are crucial to every professional rider’s path and to the history of motocross.
