DUBYA USA WOMEN'S WORLD VET CHAMPIONSHIPS

"Competitive Motosports Announces Women's Pro Purse!"

Hesperia, CA, October 12, 2016– John Owen of Competitive Motosports is proud to announce that after months of fund raising, he was able to secure an amazing $1500 Pro Purse for the pro women during the 32nd Annual Dubya USA World Vet Championships coming up in just a few short weeks at Glen Helen Raceway.

"I am very proud and honored to once again be a part of this epic event" says John Owen, owner of Competitive Motosports.

In addition to securing the pro purse, John is sponsoring three of the top European female racers lined up to compete during the two days of racing at the world renowned Glen Helen Raceway. For her return trip over to compete in the women's pro class, Four-Time Women's World MX Champion Steffi Laier, from Dielheim, Germany plans to take home the gold as Birgit Lemp-Schelkle, also from Germany (currently living in Chicago, IL), plans to give her a run for the money. While new comer to the states, the 2015 JMS Belgium Champ, Kathleen VanHaeren from Hoeselt, Belgium, says "I am just excited to have the opportunity to travel to California and race with the American Girls, WHAT A DREAM COME TRUE!!!".

In closing, John states "As a small retailer/motorsports service shop based out of Orient, OH, I am very excited to be able to help riders, male and female, with bike transport, airfare and logistics to attend this event".

Through his efforts at Competitive Motosports, John Owen is also providing bike transportation from Ohio to California and back for four amateur male competitors who will be competing at the Dubya World Vet Championships this year as well.
